Petition for Letters of Special Administration

Attachment 3d.

Waiver of bond is requested as follows:

Petitioner seeking appointment as Special Administrator is the mother of the decedent. She intends to marshal assets of the decedent for the exclusive use of the decedent's three children - her grandchildren - after payment of debts and expenses of administration. The decedent's children are the sole beneficiaries of his estate under California Probate Code Section 6402(a). Public scrutiny of these proceedings makes it virtually impossible for the proposed Special Administrator to do anything inappropriate with estate assets or in any manner harm the estate's beneficiaries or creditors. Given the nature and extent of the decedent's assets, it would be difficult if not impossible to quantify their value at this time, so the calculation of bond would be speculative at best. For these reasons, waiver of bond is respectfully requested.

Petition for Letters of Special Administration

Attachment 3f(2)(a)

Proposed Special Administrator has priority as follows:

Petitioner Katherine Esther Jackson is the decedent's mother. Since the decedent had no surviving spouse or domestic partner, and his children are minors without a guardian appointed, his parents are first in order of priority of persons entitled to appointment under California Probate Code Section 8461(e). By signing this Petition, both of decedent's parents join in proposing that Katherine Esther Jackson be appointed as Special Administrator of the decedent's estate.

Estate of Michael Joseph Jackson aka Michael Jackson, Decedent

Petition for Letters of Special Administration

Attachment 3f(3)

Grounds and requested powers for Special Administrator:

Grounds:

Immediate appointment of a Special Administrator is necessary for the preservation of estate assets. Petitioners are concerned that a variety of people may come forward with what they inaccurately claim to be a will of the decedent. In addition, the decedent's financial life was in transition at the time of his death, and no one individual or entity has a complete overview of his various enterprises. Consolidation of management is needed so that business obligations and opportunities are properly addressed until the appointment of a permanent Administrator can be made.

A Special Administrator is needed to (a) take possession of all property of the estate and preserve it from damage, waste and injury, (b) collect and secure income from various substantial sources of such income, (c) defend against suits that may be filed against the estate, especially in view of the possibility of false competing wills, (d) commence legal proceedings to protect the interests of the estate, again, in view of the possible emergence of said competing false wills, (e) attend to pending contracts to which the decedent was a party, (f) continue to meet the decedent's payroll obligations, and (g) make payments due on secured debt.

Notice of the request for appointment of a Special Administrator is effectively given with the signing of this Petition by all the affected parties having legal capacity.

Requested Powers:

All of the grounds for appointment of a Special Administrator described above, except for the last, can be addressed with powers that are automatically conferred upon a Special Administrator pursuant to Probate Code Section 8544(a).

With respect to debt, it is requested that the Special Administrator be granted the power under California Probate Code Section 8544(b)(2) to pay interest and principal obligations on secured debt to forestall immediate enforcement and to pay interest as it comes due.

Petition for Letters of Special Administration

Supplement to Attachment 3f(3)

Additional grounds for appointment of Special Administrator:

Several compelling reasons exist for the immediate appointment of a Special Administrator in this matter:

1. Numerous bank accounts exist that are in control of third parties, some of which accounts were used to pay expenses of the decedent's parents' home. As the ability to continue to maintain such home now is more important than ever for the benefit of the decedent's children (as well as for the decedent's parents), it is crucial that a Special Administrator be appointed immediately to marshal these bank accounts.
2. The decedent was a joint venture stakeholder in the Sony-ATV Music Publishing Catalog, an extensive music catalog of tremendous value including works of the Beatles and other prominent songwriters. Communications are open with the principals involved, yet no one is appointed to speak on behalf of the decedent's very substantial interest in this most important asset of the estate. The remaining principal may immediately seek to assert rights and remedies under the terms of the joint venture agreement that would cause irreparable harm or irreversible loss. A Special Administrator is needed to be named immediately and placed in position to address such issues.
3. Control needs to be asserted by a Special Administrator over tangible personal property currently in the physical possession of a third party. Representatives of the decedent previously had sought to have certain memorabilia of the decedent sold at auction. The auction was canceled by the decedent, but a former representative of the decedent still has possession of these items even though there is no authority for retention of the items. Without a Special Administrator to secure the property, the chances of such valuable property disappearing or being wrongfully exploited are high.
4. Various business documents and other purported documents of the decedent are under the control of third parties, and their release could work to the detriment of the estate. A Special Administrator needs to quickly marshal and preserve such paperwork along with the other assets of the estate, thereby facilitating an orderly administration of the estate both now and after a permanent Administrator is appointed.

5. We understand that at least one individual is suggesting that he has authority to act on behalf of the decedent because he is in possession of a power of attorney granted to him by decedent. While, of course, any such power of attorney would have expired with the decedent, no one presently is in a legal position to refute such contentions regarding a power of attorney or any other claim to representation of the decedent's interests. One of the concerns is that anyone presented with a power of attorney might not know that it had expired upon the decedent's death.

6. One or more individuals have claimed in the press that they have or may have a will of the decedent, yet no such documentation has been presented to the family although the family has requested a copy of any such paperwork. Likewise, no such document has been offered up to the press or lodged with this court. It is possible that the court will have to review many wills and evaluate the competing claims of the presenters of such wills. While the result of such review might be that someone other than Petitioner Katherine Esther Jackson would be appointed as the permanent personal representative of the decedent's estate, it is clear that someone with legal authority needs to be in place now to properly protect the estate's interests, especially in view of the possibly protracted process of examining the competing wills and claims thereon.

Furthermore, in this regard, co-counsel L. Londell McMillan is in constant, in person contact with the decedent's family including both Petitioners, and the family confirms that (a) no will or other estate planning document has surfaced to their knowledge and (b) they very much want Mr. McMillan to represent and protect the decedent's interests to the greatest possible extent. A possible competing interest is a purported claim of an attorney who long ago was dismissed from the decedent's group of advisors and about whom the decedent stated that he never wanted the attorney to have anything further to do with his affairs.

For the foregoing reasons, the appointment of a Special Administrator now, rather than a week from now, is strongly indicated.

Petition for Letters of Administration

Attachment 3d.

Waiver of bond is requested as follows:

Petitioner seeking appointment as Administrator is the mother of the decedent. She intends to marshal assets of the decedent for the exclusive use of the decedent's three children - her grandchildren - after payment of debts and expenses of administration. The decedent's children are the sole beneficiaries of his estate under California Probate Code Section 6402(a). Public scrutiny of these proceedings makes it virtually impossible for the proposed Administrator to do anything inappropriate with estate assets or in any manner harm the estate's beneficiaries or creditors. Given the nature and extent of the decedent's assets, it would be difficult if not impossible to quantify their value at this time, so the calculation of bond would be speculative at best. For these reasons, waiver of bond is respectfully requested.

Proposed Administrator has priority as follows:

Petitioner Katherine Esther Jackson is the decedent's mother. Since the decedent had no surviving spouse or domestic partner, and his children are minors, his parents are first in order of priority of persons entitled to appointment under California Probate Code Section 8461(e). By signing this Petition, both of decedent's parents join in proposing that Katherine Esther Jackson be appointed as Administrator of the decedent's estate.
