2 INTRODUCTION

3 1. Plaintiff Chuck Zito ("Zito") is a former president of the New York City chapter of the 4 Hells Angels motorcycle club who later became a radio, television and film personality.

5 2. Defendant FX Networks, LLC ("FX") is a corporation which is doing business in the 6 County of Los Angeles, State of California.

7 3. Zito is unaware of the true names or capacities of those defendants named in this
8 complaint as Does 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason they sue each such defendant by a
9 fictitious name. Zito will amend this complaint to state their true names and capacities when they have 10 been ascertained.

11 4. Zito is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that each of the defendants
12 named in this complaint as Does 1 through 20 is legally responsible for the debts, acts and omissions of 13 the other defendants. At the times and places specified in this complaint, the conduct of the fictitious
14 defendants was a proximate cause of damage to Zito.

15 5. Zito is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that at all times mentioned in this 16 complaint each defendant was the agent, servant, and employee of each other defendant, acting within 17 the course and scope of his, her, or its agency and employment with the full knowledge, consent, and 18 ratification of each other defendant.

19 6. In 1998, Zito conceived, developed, and wrote a treatment containing his creative ideas
20 for a television series entitled Nomads which was later tweaked and renamed The Wild Angels
21 ("Project"). The Project was about an outlaw motorcycle club. The protagonists were the leader of the 22 club, his family members, rivals and associates within the club who support or undermine the club, law
23 enforcement and government officials, and rival gangs.

24 7. FX, a division of the Fox Entertainment Group, operates a number of related cable
25 television networks which engage in the business of financing, producing, and broadcasting television
26 series. FX produces original television programming which airs on its cable networks.

27 8. In 2003, on Zito's behalf, Ted Chervin ("Chervin"), who is today President of the talent
28 agency International Creative Management ("ICM"), set up a meeting with John Landgraf ("Landgraf")

1 and Nick Grad ("Grad") during which the Project could be offered for sale to FX. Landgraf is President
2 and General Manager of FX and Grad is Executive Vice President of Original Programming for FX.

3 9. In or about April 2004, Zito's representatives met with Landgraf and Grad at their office
4 at FX during which they disclosed and offered for sale the Project to FX with the understanding and
5 expectation, which was fully understood by defendants at the time, that Zito would be reasonably
6 compensated for its use by defendants. In the course of doing so Zito's representatives disclosed his 7 ideas pertaining to story and characters for a television series based on an outlaw motorcycle club.

8 10. At the time of the meeting with Landgraf and Grad, Zito and defendants entered into an
9 implied-in-fact contract by which defendants agreed that if they used the ideas for the Project to produce
10 and broadcast a television series based on those ideas, when it aired Zito would be reasonably 11 compensated and afforded appropriate screen credits including without limitation credit as creator of the 12 series. At the conclusion of the meeting Landgraf advised he would consider the Project and get back to 13 them. Later in 2004, Landgraf advised Chervin that FX was not interested in a biker show and was 14 passing on the Project.

15 11. In 2005, another agent for Zito spoke with Landgraf at FX about Zito's Project but 16 Landgraf expressed no interest in considering the Project again.

17 12. In 2006, FX began developing a television series eventually known as Sons of Anarchy
18 ("Series"). Nearly every creative element of the Series was packaged for defendants by Chervin and 19 ICM. The person credited as creator of the series is Kurt Sutter ("Sutter"), who had a close working 20 relationship with Landgraf and Grad beginning in 2002, as Sutter was the executive producer of the 21 series The Shield which was FX's first hit television series. Sutter had no knowledge of motorcycles,
22 motorcycle clubs, or the biker world, but he was a successful producer/showrunner with a track record
23 whom Landgraf trusted. Zito is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Landgraf disclosed
24 Zito's ideas for the Project to Sutter which enabled the Sutter to develop the Series for FX.

25 13. The Series began airing on the FX Network on September 3, 2008 when The Shield was 26 cancelled and Sutter needed a new show to produce. The Series is one of the network's biggest hits and 27 is about to commence its third season. It is substantially similar in nearly all material respects to the 28

1 Project and to the ideas conceived by Zito which were disclosed by his representatives to Landgraf and 2 Grad.

3 14. Zito has performed each and every term and condition of the contract to be performed on 4 his part.

5 15. FX was obligated to pay Zito the reasonable value of his ideas, hire him to work on the 6 Series and afford him screen credit as creator. Defendants breached an implied-in-fact contract with 7 Zito starting on September 3, 2008 when they failed to pay him the reasonable value of the ideas he 8 provided (which they used) and afford him credit, and the breach continued when it failed to hire him to 9 render services during the course of the Series.

10 16. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing breach of contract, Zito has been 11 damaged in a sum which cannot presently be calculated with certainty but which is believed to exceed 12 $5,000,000 in accordance with proof.

13 WHEREFORE, Zito prays for judgment as follows:

- 14 1. For damages according to proof believed to exceed $5,000,000;
15 2. For interest as provided by law;
16 3. For his costs of suit; and
17 4. For such other and further relief as the court deems just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
